WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Madame, One more word of congratulation on your historic nomination as Vice-President of the United States of America.
I noted from an article in "Newsweek" that you were born in the town of Newburgh N.Y., founded by the influx of Scottish emigrants
and the headquarters of General Washington.
My forefathers are from the old Burgh of Newburgh,
in Fife-shire Scotland, where the remains of 13th Cent.
Lindores Abbey is still preserved.

It occurred to me you may be interested to view the town of my roots, which also has two restaurants, both Scots-Italians.

My best wishes in your campaign,
Yours sincerely,

Dear [redacted]

Here we are after a very enjoyable
week in Glasgow.
We were at Aberdeen
[redacted] & [redacted] away to Edinburgh today with Jenny & Nett. Weather
very good - only one wet day so far.

Hope you are all well.
